HISTORY

It all began with an amateur golfer and a banker. Bobby Jones, a lawyer by profession, was a champion golfer and Clifford Roberts had made his fortune on Wall Street. Unhappy with the constant pressures of competition, Jones longed to play with friends away from the hordes. And so, together with Roberts, he created his dream course. In 1933, Augusta National Golf Club opened its doors and, a year later, they invited 72 golfers to play in the first-ever Masters, as it would become.

We aim to make your Masters experience the best sporting event of your life. Before take-off, your bespoke app itinerary will provide a wealth of key information covering all aspects of your trip. From the second you land, our expert team will deliver a full 24/7 concierge hosting service. We'll share all our local knowledge, making sure you enjoy your golf, dine in the finest restaurants and fully embrace the vibrant local area. All this while we prepare you for your special day at The Masters.

SUNDAY AT THE MASTERS

As the gates open on the final round the buzz and electric atmosphere will immediately grab you. Off-site hospitality is included with breakfast, lunch, afternoon snacks and an all-day premium open bar all served within 10 minutes' walk of the main gates. We'll tell you the best viewing spots and all the secrets to making the most of a day at golf's most iconic tournament.
